

Simply Good News

This month's Book Club selection is Simply Good News by NT Wright, to be translated and published in Kurdish. It will be used as a textbook for students at the Hope Bible Institute in the Kurdish region of Iraq. LATM partner Julius Metuge says that this book helps students understand how the teachings of Jesus, His message, and His transforming power in our lives needs to be shared all over the world. This book helps students learn how Christ's message, recorded many years ago, is relevant today and how they can communicate that with others.

In just three years, LATM donors and the Hope Bible Institute have partnered to complete fifteen Christian books in Kurdish! This significantly impacts the Bible Institute and the Kurdish church, comprised of new believers who have come from a Muslim background.

Would you pray with us this month for the Church in Kurdistan, the Bible Institute, and that this book will help them as they boldly share Christ with the Muslim community around them?
