Lighting Up Lives with Love and Scripture

Dear Ministry Friends,

I trust this letter finds you well. I am Troy Nelson, and I come to you today with a request and an opportunity to participate in a transformation journey that echoes the heart of our calling at ARM Prison Outreach.

Imagine, if you will, the profound impact we have witnessed of God's divine work within America's prisons. Thanks to the generous spirit of people like you, ARM's outreach has flourished, touching the lives of 31,369 incarcerated souls with collegiate-level Bible studies. In 2024 alone, 72,472 Bibles were placed into hands, eager for God's wisdom and Jesus' offer of a new beginning. Each Bible is a beacon of hope in an environment where darkness reigns. Moreover, we've nearly doubled the number of baptistries delivered to prisons from last year, from 41 to 81, offering sacred space where sins are forgiven and new beginnings with Jesus and His Church are made possible.

Let me share with you the story of Michael, a man whose life was defined by prison bars, guilt, and shame. His journey took a turn when he engaged in ARM's Gospel of John Bible study. As Michael dug into God's Word and discussed it with the other men in his pod, he encountered Jesus. At the end of one study, Micheal stood up, his eyes filled with tears, and declared, "I've lived my life in chains, but today, I've found true freedom." Michael received a new life as he was baptized in one of ARM's collapsible baptistries.

This is what your sponsorship can achieve. For just $5, you can sponsor a Bible, but what you are truly offering is far more—a lifeline to redemption, a whisper of peace in chaos, a testament that no one is beyond the reach of God's love and grace.

Your sponsorship transcends the act of giving a book; it is an investment in someone's soul. It is a message to the incarcerated that they are not forgotten.

I invite you not just to give but to join in this miracle of transformation. Your support will extend the Gospel's light into the darkest of places, deepen the impact of God's Kingdom in prisons, and change lives, one Bible at a time.

Thank you for considering this call to action, this call to faith. Together, let us keep the flame of hope and redemption bright where needed most—in America's prisons.

With heartfelt gratitude and anticipation for what we can achieve together,
