Dear Pine Lake Christian Church,

I'm writing from Kurdistan, and I'll let you know more about that soon. God is working through you to bring books around the world! (including this majority Muslim region). Your prayers and giving are essential to this endeavor. Thank you!

In fact, the importance of your participation with LATM in helping partners worldwide is evident in the work being done in India. Despite the high level of pressure from the Hindu government, our partner, a church leader in Meghalaya State, recently wrote this:

I have received a lot of positive comments on the books. Here are a few examples – women from villages personally told me that they were blessed with the books, which had helped them in their personal understanding of Scripture and challenged their spiritual growth. Men have told me many things, such as the importance of publishing Christian books on various subjects and the urgent need for teaching materials in the church and Bible institutions, which has stirred them to want to study God's Word more. I am incredibly appreciative to all LATM's supporters and prayer warriors! It is because of you all that this happened.

Sometimes our personal sphere can seem so small. It can seem as though God isn't doing anything. But when we look through the eyes of a brother or sister in Christ somewhere else in the world, we can see more clearly that God is working, that God's kingdom is coming. Thank you for being His ambassadors with LATM, helping field partners like this Christian publish books in their own languages.

Let's keep bringing the books,

Be FIRM & The Death, Burial, and Resurrection of Jesus

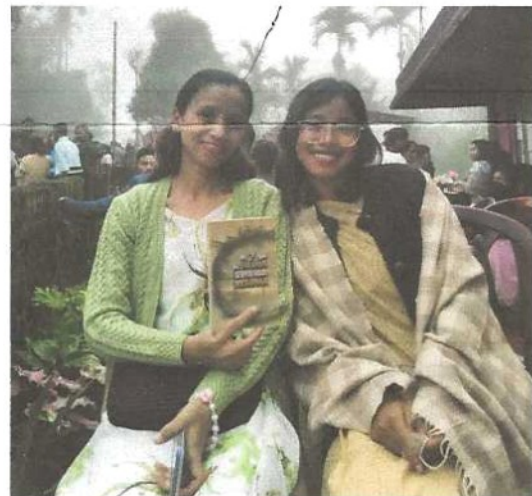

This month's Book Club selections are two different books, both for India: one is with a ministry in the south and the other in the far northeast of the country.

The first book is Be FIRM, written in Tamil. This book reminds believers that our strength is found not in our own abilities but in our unwavering trust in God. It encourages Christians to stand firm in their faith, even in times of trial and uncertainty, keeping their hope in God.

The second book is The Death, Burial, and Resurrection of Jesus: An Apologetic, written in Khasi. Of the need for this book, C.U.* writes: Many denominational doctrines, and even worldly ideas, have emerged within the Khasi Christian community.

This book helps them assess what is consistent with God's Word and how to have a rational faith, based on the teaching of Scripture. It will give guidance on how to defend the faith from skeptics' ideology, which denies that Christ died on the cross, was buried, and resurrected.

These books, written by local authors, bring Christ into each respective culture, language, and context and would not be possible without your gifts. Thank you!

*This is not his real name.
