

10-02-25

Dear Ones for Whom Christ Jesus Died,

I hope this letter finds you well and filled with the same joy and encouragement that you have so generously poured into my life and ministry. I am writing to express my heartfelt thanks for your unwavering support, prayers, and partnership. Your encouragement has been a source of strength and inspiration as I continue to serve Jesus and grow.

Over the past months, I have been blessed with several remarkable experiences that I would like to share with you:

Revival in Slanesville, WV

One of the highlights was a truly super and wonderful revival in Slanesville, West Virginia with Mount Union Christian Church. The Spirit moved powerfully during our time there, renewing hearts and bringing fresh hope to many through the preaching. The fellowship and unity among believers were uplifting, and I am grateful for the opportunity to witness and be a part of such a transformative event. Thank Chris Bishop.

Weekly Discipling Sessions

In addition to the revival, I have been leading weekly discipling sessions with six dedicated students. Each week, we meet to study – either through Facebook, phone, or in person – pray, and grow together in faith. It has been rewarding to see their commitment and progress as they deepen their understanding and walk with Christ. Their enthusiasm and hunger for spiritual growth encourage me greatly.

Looking Forward

As I reflect on these recent activities, I am deeply aware that none of this would be possible without your support. Thank you for standing with me—your prayers, encouragement, and gifts help make this ministry fruitful. I am excited about what lies ahead and look forward to keeping you updated on future developments and opportunities.

May God bless you richly for your kindness and generosity. Please know that you are appreciated and prayed for. I am grateful to have you on this journey with me.

By God's matchless Grace I Am,

Saint
Saint Dick