Dear Pine Lake Christian Church,

It brings me joy to be in ministry with you. Our partnership together places you on the frontlines of God's work through books in various languages around the world. Contrary to what many believe, printed materials are as important as ever. The written word has played a crucial role for thousands of years and remains something that can be taken anywhere. Thank you for your faithfulness to the Lord and your partnership with LATM.

Last month, I mentioned our trip to Ukraine. We went and have returned. While there, we witnessed the devastation caused by needless war and the joy of being with fellow believers who are committed to the gospel mission.

During our visit, the book Faith, Science, and Worldviews Clash had just arrived from the print house. This book is instrumental in helping Ukrainians break free from the mindset that faith and science cannot coexist. Through this work, hearts are opened and grow in understanding of how God created and sustains the world. This book—and many others—exists because of your ongoing partnership. We heard from our Ukrainian partners about how grateful they are for you and for the possibilities your generosity creates. They wanted to convey their heartfelt THANK YOU for the work you make possible.

Let's keep working together to seek the kingdom of God worldwide through books. And, just like Paul asked Timothy, so we ask you to "bring the books" with us in the languages of the world.

God bless you,

Karl Halverson
