Dear Pine Lake Christian Church,

Thank you for partnering with LATM during this significant moment in history. God is moving to bring the gospel to long-resistant places, and He is doing it through books. You, along with many faithful followers of Christ, are playing a crucial role in this effort by ensuring that LATM partners can publish biblically grounded, doctrinally sound books in various languages around the world. Thank you!

One of the most exciting developments right now is the translation of the College Press NIV Commentary Series. Several of our partners are working to translate the entire series into their native languages. Our partner in Russia shares, "In my opinion, the College Press NIV Commentaries combine all the advantages. This series is sufficiently modern, sufficiently deep, sufficiently practical, and well-balanced from a biblical teaching perspective."

God is working through books in languages worldwide, and your generosity is making this possible. Let's continue to bring the books—no matter what!

Galatians & Ephesians and Timothy & Titus in Russian

This month's Book Club will feature two commentaries from the College Press NIV Commentary series: Galatians and Ephesians and Timothy and Titus, which have been translated into Russian.

This is a recently completed book from the same series on the book of Luke.

The story of these commentaries begins in Ukraine, where Sergei and his team have been working to translate and publish the entire commentary series in both Ukrainian and Russian. However, they were unable to print the Russian commentaries in Ukraine due to legal restrictions. As a result, these books were only available online as e-books.

Sergei then offered the book files to Konstantin, our partner in Moscow. He eagerly embraced the idea of printing the books in Russia and volunteered to handle the formatting, which will help the team in Ukraine complete the projects more quickly. The best part, though, is that these books will now be accessible to Bible students in Russia and other Russian-speaking countries in the region!

Despite ongoing conflicts in the world, the way of God's people is the way of unity and mutual edification. Your contributions to the Book Club this month will fund the printing of 1,000 copies of each volume so that Russian-speaking students can study and teach God's Word well.
