I'm delighted to share the latest newsletter with you. This edition of Giving Words is filled with good news — all made possible by YOU!

Every story shows your commitment to share Scripture with people longing to experience God's Word in their own language.

This newsletter focuses on the amazing difference the Plain Indonesian New Testament translation has made for people, for entire families, and for whole communities!

You will read about Imani, who found answers to her spiritual questions after struggling with a Bible translation she didn't understand.

You'll also read about Damar, who can now understand God's Word with confidence rather than guessing what it means, and Kirana, whose family has experienced significant growth from reading the Plain Indonesian New Testament translation!

* From the bottom of my heart, thank you for making an eternal difference for people longing for God's Word.

Whether you support a missionary or a project, these stories show what you are making possible through your generosity.

I am so very thankful for you.

That All May Know Jesus,

GREG
