

À

God is continuing to heal and redeem the children and youth on our campus.

À

Ö—jÖ—¶Ö—»Ö—® arrived on campus like a storm. She shouted that sheâ€™™d been kidnapped, shouted insults at anyone nearby, and ran whenever she saw an opportunity. Every day felt like a test she was determined to fail.

À

But months passed, and the storm quieted.

À

One afternoon over lunch, a staff member finally asked the question everyone had been wondering: What changed?

À

Nina didnâ€™™t hesitate. â€œI didnâ€™™t trust you,â€ she said. â€œSo, I tried to push you away. I thought if I made you angry enough, youâ€™™d let me leave. But you didnâ€™™t. You showed me you loved me. And even when you were hard on me, I realized it was because you wanted what was best for me. I realized I could trust you.â€

"God can redeem what looks impossible."

really serve a God who can redeem anything. There is no one beyond that."

Â

Kevin Hewitt, President & CEO, was honored to be asked for a return interview on the Plain Values podcast. In this episode, Kevin shares powerful stories of healing, hope, and redemption as he reflects on the incredible work taking place in the lives of children from hard places.

Â

Weâ€™re grateful for the opportunity to share the mission of CCHO and the stories of transformation happening every day.

Watch the Interview

Caring4KIDS

THE 32ND ANNUAL GOLF CLASSIC

The 32nd Annual Caring4Kids Golf Classic was held on Monday, August 10 at The Wooster Country Club. 100 golfers spent the day competing in a 36-hole scramble, completing contests and exciting hole-in-one challenges! We are so grateful to all of our sponsors, donors and golfers who helped more children experience their worth in Christ!

Â

View the winning teams, sponsors, and event images in the blog below!

Caring4Kids Golf Classic

Therapeutic Art Group for Teens

An ongoing group for students in grades 6-12

Teens will use art and creative expression to practice mindfulness, explore emotions, hone communication & interpersonal skills and increase distress tolerance and perseverance.

Saturdays • 10-11am

Encompass Christian Counseling

7317 Portage Street, NW
Massillon, OH 44646

Interested or have questions? Give us a call at 330.966.1620.

You have received this email because you signed up for digital communications from Christian Children's Home of Ohio through a gift or at an event. If you believe you received this email in error, please click the unsubscribe link below or email adv@ccho.org to be removed from this list.